EDUCATION

We Must Have Progress In Our Schools "No state can have real progress unless it has first rate schools,"

"takes trained and educated boys and girls to fill the jobs needed by business and industry in the future. "Therefore, I say that Alabama cannot afford to be on the bottom of the ladder when it comes to education.'

Higher Classroom Teachers Pay

"Classroom teachers deserve the best we can give them," Folsom says. "I have a record in their behalf that makes me proud. During my first term, their average salary was raised nearly $700 per year; and during my last term their salary was raised nearly $700 per year — that's an average hike of nearly $1400 more money per year, that every teacher in Alabama got during Folsom administration. I am proud of that record. And yet today we find that we are still at the bottom of the list in teachers salaries. Therefore, I say that we must pay them more. Many of our teachers are going to Georgia and Florida because they can get a lot better pay. I will ask the legislature to raise classroom teachers salaries to a level that will be on an average of our neighboring states. Such a raise will make the teaching profession more attractive to our young

More Money For Education

Folsom pointed out that as long as we have a steady rise in our youth population, there will be a need for more funds to educate them. "What we need most is a sounder money basis for paying the bill to educate our children," Folsom said. "It is foolish to have a system that allows for proration year after year. I will propose a plan for a firm appropriation that will let schools know that they will have sufficient money to operate a nine months pro-

Free Text Books Through High School

"I will ask the legislature to provide the funds to supply free textbooks to our students all the way through high school" Folsom says.

There Will Be No Mixing of Races

"There will be no mixing of the races in our schools and colleges in Alabama during my third term", Folsom says. "There was never any mixing during my two terms before, and there won't be any the next erm. I have the best record of any southern governor toward that end. I will keep this problem out of the courts, as I have in the past. I found that was the best way to handle the matter.
